

DIY Memory Scrapbook Using Old Magazines

Create a personalized scrapbook using old magazines and keepsakes! This fun and eco-friendly project is perfect for both kids and adults to enjoy together.

Materials:

- Old magazines
- A notebook or blank paper to make a scrapbook
- Scissors
- Glue stick or tape
- Markers, pens, or colored pencils
- Photos, ticket stubs, etc.
- Optional: stickers, washi tape, ribbon

Instructions:

1. Gather Magazines

Flip through magazines and cut out colorful pictures, words, or patterns that catch your eye.

2. Prep Your Scrapbook

Use a notebook or create your own scrapbook by folding and stapling paper together.

3. Cut Out Pictures

Snip out your favorite magazine clippings. Let kids pick out fun images like animals or bright colors.

4. Organize Your Pages

Lay out your photos and clippings on each page before gluing. Mix personal photos with magazine cutouts.

5. Glue It Down

Once you're happy with the layout, glue everything in place. Use washi tape or stickers for extra flair.

6. Add Notes and Doodles

Write captions, notes, or draw doodles to personalize each page. Kids can create stories or label their favorite things.

7. Keep Crafting

Repeat for each page, creating themes or fun random designs. Let creativity flow!

8. Share Your Masterpiece

Once your scrapbook is complete, share it with friends or keep it as a special memory.
